11 September 2013 9:00 AM - 14 September 2013 5:00 PM

3rd Historic Mortars Conference: HMC13
September 11-14th 2013

University of the West of Scotland is pleased to announce the 3rd Historic Mortars Conference, HMC13, will be held in Glasgow, at the historic Mitchell Library. The call for papers is now open, visit www.uws.ac.uk/HMC13 for more information

The previous events in Lisbon (2008) and Prague (2010) were highly successful, attracting nearly 200 participants and almost 150 papers each with accompanying oral and poster presentations.

The conference will provide a forum for exchange and dialogue between those with diverse interests in the understanding of historic mortars and masonry, building conservation and Archaeometry.
